

Kylie Porter - Chair

Kylie is a Mackay local through and through. She started her own business Out of the Blue Marketing Company back in 1996 and along with her business partner, now employs seven creative minds to help solve the marketing and graphic design problems of the region! Chair of the Mackay Chamber of Commerce since 2009, a Director of Mackay Whitsunday Isaac REDC and a member of the Whitsunday Voices Youth Literature Festival organising committee, Kylie also provides support to the Mackay Foundation and has previously held a position on the Whitsunday Anglican School Foundation Board. Kylie’s family background has strong business ties with the Mackay region going back more than 128 years and this long history, coupled with her own growing business makes her a passionate and enthusiastic advocate for the future of Mackay.
