

Julie Agnew – Committee Member

Initially an RN Julie left management in nursing to pursue her interests in education. As a lecturer with the NSW Police Service she also devoted time to research projects for the University of NSW.

Strategically involved in the business, mining, training and community services industries she has completed tertiary education in Management, Vocational Education & Training, Safety, Project Management, Leadership, Quality and Business, and is currently finalising a Masters in Education Leadership & Management.

As a Captain in the RAANC – part time army for 15 years, Julie held the position of Senior Nursing Officer for the North Queensland Region. She also is a Volunteer with the QLD Govt Community JP’s program.

Over the past seven years Julie has been the Owner/CEO of JADE Corporate & Community Development, an organisation that specialises in assisting business with safety management, quality management, accredited training, and business/career development.

An executive on the governance committee for Ideal Placements and a board member of the Mackay Chamber of Commerce for the past 3 years she works enthusiastically, assertively and passionately in support of the Chamber’s Members. Not afraid to ask the ‘hard questions’, Julie is prepared to go the extra mile in support of economic, social and environmental sustainability of this region’s future growth and development for the business community.
